Admiral Arthur W. Radford
 Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff
 Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Admiral Radford:

25X1A2d1

His comprehension of our objectives and his desire to cooperate resulted in a group of some forty military officers attending the two-week indoctrination. But more significant than the number was the quality of officer and military scope represented. These fine officers represented the unified commands, the departmental headquarters, your own Joint Staff, and senior service colleges.

We are convinced that this program is of great mutual benefit. Through the untiring efforts of Captain Bulkeley, this 1956 annual briefing was the most successful to date.
